

PRECIOUS METALS, ARE INHERENTLY MORE RESILIENT TO MARKET SHOCKS AND CREDIT CONTRACTIONS THAN OTHER ASSETS.

ADRIAN C. SPITTERS

Author, Speaker & Consultant

Adrian C. Spitters, known as “The Son of a Dutch Farmer,” is a private wealth advisor with more than 35 years of experience helping investors protect and preserve their wealth. His work centers on de-risking strategies, tax efficiency, and building resilient portfolios designed to perform through economic uncertainty.

As a partner with one of North America’s leading independent wealth firms, Adrian focuses on investment management and long-term planning. He is a strong advocate for tangible assets—particularly gold and precious metals—as essential safeguards against inflation, market volatility, and government overreach.

Adrian’s perspective is shaped by decades of navigating major financial crises, reinforcing his belief in liquidity, discipline, and real assets. A respected speaker and author, he has written four books on wealth, business succession, and financial strategy. His work focuses on helping investors build lasting financial security in an increasingly unpredictable world.

At New World Precious Metals (NWPM), our mission is simple: to help Canadians take control of their wealth with tangible assets—gold and silver—that hold lasting value across generations. No matter the size of your portfolio, gold and silver are a smart way to preserve today’s wealth and create opportunity for the future.

Adrian C. Spitters is a seasoned wealth strategist and straight-talking speaker known for cutting through noise to what matters—liquidity, discipline, and protecting wealth in uncertain times. Often called “The Son of a Dutch Farmer,” he champions tangible assets like gold as a foundation for long-term security. His perspective is shaped by decades of navigating financial upheaval, grounded in practical experience and a clear-eyed view of risk.
